

Seed School in a Day

Presented by Valley Organic Growers Association, Slow Food Western Slope, The Learning Council, and Rocky Mountain Seed Alliance

Saturday
Mar 31
9am-5pm

Hotchkiss Memorial Hall 175 1st St., Hotchkiss, CO 81419

Seed School in a Day is a powerful, one-day workshop aimed at shifting the seed paradigm back into the hands of our communities. Seed School in a Day offers a comprehensive overview of seed knowledge covering the history, science, business, and craft of seeds. Practical, hands-on activities are balanced with engaging lectures to provide a fun and interactive learning experience. A delicious, locally sourced, organic lunch will be served. Scholarships available, contact vogaco@gmail.com.

And don't miss this FREE event the day before the workshop!

Potluck Social, Seed Swap, & Grower's Panel

Friday, March 30, 5:30-8:30pm, Hotchkiss Memorial Hall

Join us for a lively conversation on seed growing and seed collaboratives, learn about the Delta County Seed Library, and get some locally grown seeds.

Bring a dish to share!

$50 for general public
$40 for RMSA Supporting Members

Visit RockyMountainSeeds.org to register and learn more about becoming an RMSA Supporting Member

